PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

G'day from Pearl Beach, New South Wales!

Bob Bush and Shireen Gastineau will be presiding over the club meetings in my place for the rest of the year. (Thanks!)

I will participate in the Zoom board meeting in November and new officers will be elected for 2023.

Partly because it's so darn exciting, I will continue to remotely participate on the book committee.
Cheers, Dan

BOOK PROJECT UPDATE

There are only 2 months left to submit any images you'd like considered for the book. That's 14 more images, 7 per month of Nov. and Dec.

The book committee is pursuing a Kickstarter campaign to raise funds to cover printing costs and also to generate enthusiasm among potential buyers of our planned book "The Spirit of Central Oregon." We are very excited by the high quality and volume of photographs that you have been submitting. If you haven't reviewed the Gallery of images recently, we invite you to do so.

At this stage, we greatly need members' help in reviewing the project draft (Click on the highlighted words to be directed to the Kickstarter page.).

Please take a look and respond with feedback by using the comment section on the draft. We would like any editing suggestions, overall impressions, thoughts and suggestions about the pledge and reward categories, and anything else you would like to comment on. We would also be keenly interested in whether you are likely to pre-order when the campaign goes live, which pledge category appeals to you, and whether you would personally like to see a different pledge category.

We will also put a link to this draft on the club's web page. The committee is fine with you sharing the link with others outside of the club to publicize the book and invite comments (although they will not be able to pledge until the campaign goes live.)

The plan is to continually revise this draft, continually ask for members' feedback, and to gradually send it to outside people in business (such as real estate) and tourism. Our plan is for the campaign to go live in January or February of 2023.

Once again, the project draft can be reached by clicking on the highlighted word above. We look forward to hearing from you.

Thank you.
The Spirit of Central Oregon book committee

ERIK BLACK IS OUR FEATURED SPEAKER FOR OUR NOVEMBER 21ST PROGRAM NIGHT

Eric Black has been actively photographing the underwater world for over 20 years. In this time, he has travelled worldwide, bought and sold more equipment than he would like to admit, and witnessed the evolution of underwater photography from the good ol' film days (where good images were always a surprise) to current technology that has opened up access to this hobby to a much wider audience.

His talk will take a trip down memory lane, showing images from these journeys and discussing the challenges associated with taking a camera into the underwater world. There will for sure be some images of clownfishes, and they will all be named Nemo.

PHOTOGRAPHY MEET-UP OUTING WITH SHIREEN

Snow Theme Photo Walk has New Date

Due to no snow we will have our Photo Walk meet (originally set for Oct 22), rescheduled to Nov 16th, noon-2.

Unfortunately, this will not help with our submitting snow themed pictures by Nov 2, but many photo ops prevail and Decembers theme is shape of water... so there you go!

Email Shireen to sign up,
iamphotoartist@yahoo.com

NPPNW will hold its fifth virtual meeting on Saturday, November 5th.

The NPPNW fall 2022 meeting will be at 9:00 Pacific Time on November 5th on Zoom. Our invited speaker will be Pat O'Hara. Pat's presentation is titled "Wilderness Scenario, Peaceful Images of Nature".

Pat has been an environmental photographer and a leader in his profession for four decades. His contemporary travel schedule takes him to national and international locations, often to photograph remote parks and wilderness areas.

You can preview some of Pat's photography at his website here: <https://www.patohara.com/>

REGISTRATION IS FREE!

It is important that you register before October 30 so we can be sure to have enough seats available on our Virtual Platform. There is no cost for this meeting, but you MUST register. Please click this link to reach the registration page:
